

Name Your Roots launched its first Newsletter 2012-10-30

From the Newsletter, subscribers may review directly their families report from the more than 25,000 names we have entered into our database, which we work to improve on a daily basis.

Name Your Roots is happy to report that we sent our first Newsletter which has all the information, which includes: news about our site, Inquisition related news and recommended articles.

Our Newsletter was sent to thousands of subscribers on our site, and aim to keep informed of all matters relating to our work.

From the Newsletter, subscribers may review directly their families report from the more than 25,000 names we have entered into our database, which we work to improve on a daily basis.

In addition to it, there's the information about our new section called Bibliography providing broader information from sources and books used to create our database.

The Newsletter was sent in three versions: English, Portuguese and Spanish, and it aims to be one of the main sources of information in the world especially with regards to the Inquisition, their victims and their descendants.

Our subscribers come from dozens of countries around the world mainly Latin America, United States, Spain and Brazil.

Mailing the Newsletter will be held once a month, which will allow all subscribers to get the latest news articles that were published on our site about everything related to this dramatic era the world survived for over 500 years.

Among the relevant news of our first Newsletter, we emphasize our site redesign, the new section called References and several recommended interesting articles, including: Portuguese Jewish children of Sao Tome and Principe.
